

Malaga Island Summer Seminar Agenda

Wednesday, July 11th

8:15 – 9 – Coffee, tea, breakfast snacks

9 – 9:30 - Introductions

9:30 – 10:00 – HHRC Overview, Introduction to Steve Black's exhibit

10:05 – 11:30 – An Overview of Malaga – Kate McBrien, Maine Historical Society

11:30 – 12:00 – Initial Thoughts Reactions – Using Malaga in the Classroom

12:00 – 12:30 – Lunch – Sandwich and salad buffet

12:30 – 1:40 – Lives of Consequence – Patricia Q. Wall, Author and Historian

1:45 – 3:00 – Slavery and Free Black Communities in Maine – Kate McMahan, Smithsonian Institution

3:15 – 4:30 – Using resources in the classroom – Kate McBrien and David Greenham

Thursday, July 12th

8:15 – 9 – Coffee, tea, breakfast snacks

9 – 9:30 – Reflections of day one

9:30 – 10:30 – Maine Historical Society – Family History/Town History – Kathleen Neumann, Maine Historical Society

10:45 – 12 – My Maine Stories/Maine Memory Network – Kathleen Neumann

12 – 12:30 – Lunch – Sandwich and salad buffet

12:30 – 1:15 – Maine State Museum – Intro, legacy of the exhibit – Joanna Torow, Maine State Museum

1:15 – 2:30 – Malaga Gallery Program - lesson plans, exercises, and use of artifacts and source documents – Joanna Torow

2:45 – 3:30 – Making connections between Malaga and today – Joanna Torow

3:45 – 4:30 – Malaga and the Teaching Tolerance anti-bias standards – David Greenham