Gerda Haas Award for Excellence in Human Rights Education and Leadership

CRITERIA

The Holocaust and Human Rights Center of Maine seeks nominations for the 2021 Gerda Haas Award for Excellence in Human Rights Education and Leadership. Nominees should have demonstrated significant achievement in human rights education and leadership. The following criteria will be considered by the committee when determining the recipient of the 2021 Gerda Haas Award:

Impact: How has the nominee advanced human rights in Maine? How have they touched people in their work?

Scale: Has the nominee shown a high level of dedication to human rights, either in the longevity of their efforts or the significance of their achievement?

HHRC's strategic goals: How do the nominee's priorities and/or actions in the community align with the mission and goals of the HHRC to end prejudice and discrimination?

Nominations made by board or staff must be received by the Holocaust and Human Rights Center of Maine by April 16, 2021.
